For Reflection and Discussion - 07/22/2012

1. What are some examples in Scripture that display brokenness and need for restoration?

2. What are some examples in your life of brokenness and need for restoration? Confess ways you seek to remedy brokenness on your own.

3. How does Christ ultimately bring restoration to His people?

4. How does this good news change everything in your mind's attention and heart's affection?

5. Think of specific life rhythms and disciplines that foster this gospel centrality for your life. What is the role of missional community for this?
