Hello. We're Glad You Are Here.

If this is your first time here we'd like say "welcome." If you would like to know more about us or need help getting connected, please stop by the guest services table just outside the auditorium and someone there will be glad to answer your questions or direct you to someone who can.

Announcements

Global Mission - To find out how you can get involved in helping the church in Uganda and the medical clinic, please visit the City and join the Uganda group or speak to Tommy Mangione.

Foundations: Jan. 20th, 4:00-5:30pm, at 1124 - The Foundations class is a requirement for all those who wish to publicly align themselves with Redemption Church through church membership. While this class is required before membership at Redemption Church, you are not making a commitment to join simply by attending the class. If you have questions or just want to know more about who we are and what we believe, this opportunity is for you.

Men's Breakfast: Thursdays, at 7am, Jan. 17th- April 4th (locations may vary) - This men's breakfast is for husbands and fathers, those soon to be husbands and fathers, or men aspiring to be husbands and fathers. We will go through Timothy Witmer's book The Shepherd Leader at Home: Knowing, Leading, Protecting, and Providing for Your Family. Participants are responsible for purchasing this book on their own and must commit to the reading assignments as they will be the basis for our conversations. Contact jeremy@redemptionchurchga.com if interested.

Missional Community training: Jan. 27- March 3, 5:30-7pm at 1124 - This training will help you and your missional community experience the life-giving and transforming power of Christ's gospel in your community's life. Whether you are a leader of a group or a member, you will benefit from this training. We will look at both theological and practical resources in the pursuit to raise up and equip leaders and to care for others in the context of a community on mission with the gospel throughout the Augusta area. RSVP on the City or contact jeremy@redemptionchurchga.com

For Reflection and Discussion:

1. Why do you think Paul uses the analogy of the body to describe the church? Do you think a better analogy exists? What is the essence of what Paul is trying to get at by using this analogy?
2. According to 1 Cor. 12:7, why does God gift his followers with specific gifts, abilities, talents? What do you think a manifestation of the Spirit is? Do you know in what ways God has gifted you? Are those gifts being manifested in the church?
3. Have you identified the ways in which you fit into the Church? What do you need to do differently to involve yourself in the common good of the body? What attitudes in your life need to change? Is there anything you need to start doing or stop doing?
4. What's the one big idea we should take away from this passage (1 Cor. 12:7, 12-31)? What is the essence of this passage in one sentence?

The City is web-based software that helps our church connect people into community, build deeper relationships, mobilize service and mission and make a lasting impact on our world with the Gospel. Whether you are a first-time guest, regular attender or member we want to get you plugged in. Visit the Connections table or kiosk to learn more and sign up.
