For Reflection and Discussion:

1. Are there any areas of your life where there are gaps between the truths of scripture and the daily practice/experience of your life? In what areas are there gaps? Why do those gaps exist?
2. Three specific gaps were mentioned on Sunday morning: do you recall those gaps? Do those specific gaps show ever show up in your life? What do you need to do specifically to address those gaps?
3. There were several "prerequisites" mentioned as it relates to gaps between truth and practice? How many of them do you recall? How many of them do you practice?
4. Do you need to discipline yourself to better incorporate those practices into your daily life? Do you agree that these practices are necessary? What specific steps do you need to take to begin these practices?
