For Reflection and Discussion:

1. What are some personal examples of when you forget the gospel? Why do you think we forget? What are the results and effects of our "gospel amnesia?"
2. What are some characteristics of spiritual maturity? In what ways do we try (and fail) to do this on our own?
3. Reflect on how Jesus models perfect maturity (think of biblical examples). How does He lead us to spiritual maturity? How does this good news change our motivations, attitudes, strength, and obedience?
4. What are some ways we can foster maturity personally and in community together? In what ways does this impact our relationships with non-Christians and spur us on to mission?
5. Take some time to pray for yourself and each other. Repent of "gospel amnesia" and self-sufficiency, and embrace the good news of Christ through faith and obedience.

We will meet just inside the gates near the fire pit.

There are many new faces at Redemption Church representing multiple generations of God's faithfulness in our little community, and we'd love to help women live out Titus 2:3-5
