For Reflection and Discussion:

1. In what ways does our culture or tradition treat Christ as insufficient? How does this manifest in your life personally?
2. What are some ways have you tried to atone for your guilt? In what ways do you try to thrive in life with a good conscience in your own strength? In what ways do you try to foster access God?
3. How does this misunderstanding of the gospel hinder our relationship with God and each other (think of specific personal experiences)?
4. How is Jesus are better hope? How does this good news change the way you live from day today? And what ways are you displaying this good news specifically in your life and telling others?
