

PRACTICE THREE

TRINITARIAN FELLOWSHIP

BEFORE YOU LEAD

For the best experience in leading your group through discussion, it is important for you to preview the session's video so you can familiarize yourself with the content, session outline, and discussion questions. It is also worth taking a few minutes to consider how to make this work within your group's timeframe.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome everyone. Pray to begin.

Say: Over the last week, we were supposed to read through four passages and spend time reading the word, praying, and journaling.

1. What did this week's practice look like for you?
2. What about this week's practice was valuable or difficult for you?

Transition: Before the video, encourage everyone to get their pencil/pen and notebook/journal out to take some notes. The title of this session is Trinitarian Friendship.

VIDEO (30 MINUTES)

DISCUSSION

Don't feel the need to limit convo to these questions. Feel free to use them as a guide, but we suggest you jot down one or two of your own questions for discussion.

Dallas Willard said, "You are invited to practice intimate fellowship with the Trinity."

1. What do you think of this statement?
2. What are some places that you are keeping your distance from Jesus?
3. How might you practice a life with God?

THE PRACTICE PROMPT

Each practice week, we will be providing a practice prompt for everyone to do on their own throughout the week. We want to invite and encourage each of us to make space to read, reflect, and use each passage as a journaling/written prayer prompt before our next practice week. You could choose to go through these passages individually or in one sitting a couple times.

1. John 17:3: The only place Jesus defines eternal life
2. John 17: 20-26: A prayer of Jesus for life together
3. Matthew 6:9-13: The Lord's Prayer

CLOSE IN PRAYER

This is a great time to pray for one another and for what's going on in each person's life. Also pray that each person would be encouraged to experience the invitation for a life with God.
