For Reflection and Discussion:

1. Share an example of a time you witnessed or experienced someone's faith having great influence.
2. In what ways does God empower our faith? What practices or disciplines foster this faith in your life personally?
3. Think of a time you experienced great hardship. What role did faith play in your endurance and comfort? In what ways did your faith grow or change because of this? How did your faith through this influence others?
4. What are some misconceptions of "righteousness?" What does the Bible say about true righteousness? How is righteous living achieved and displayed?
