Missional community leader Michael Stephens is a native of a Kansas City suburb and was stationed in Augusta during his 6 years in the Navy. During this time, he got involved with Redemption Church and currently leads the Buff MC on Tuesday nights. He recently married Crystal (Kimm), who introduced him to the church when it was The Well. Michael holds degrees in Arabic and psychology and is currently studying nuclear chemistry while applying to medical schools. In the future, he would like to return to Reformed Theological Seminary to pursue theological studies. In the meantime, he streams courses from iTunesU and welcomes discussions on academic and theological issues. Though Michael is Reformed in faith, many of his family members are ministers in the Assemblies of God.

For Reflection and Discussion:

1. How have we corporately and individually "tasted that the Lord is good?" How has/can this transformed your daily life?
2. What kind of spiritual sacrifices are we to offer to God? Why does verse 5 specifically say "spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ?"
3. If God saves us based solely on our faith in Christ, why is Peter calling for so many good works? What are some results from these works?
4. God promises to keep us safe in our salvation, but he does not promise to keep us out of physical danger. How did Peter tell these believers to face persecution? What does persecution look like to most of us today?
5. If a non-believer were to observe your words and actions, would he/she see a joy, humility, confidence or love they would like to mimic? Do you reflect Christ to your coworkers and friends? Would they know you are a Christian without you telling them?

Hello. We're Glad You Are Here.
